We unlock the door; we cross the threshold. We know not what lies beyond.

But of one thing we are certain:

there is no turning back.

Behind us lies a vast panorama of development — mental, emotional, and social.

We have completed a chapter in our lives.

Ahead lies a surging river. We must tread the stepping stones carefully and surely.

There are places I'll remember all my life — though some have changed. Some forever, not for better, some have gone and some remain.

All these places had their moments, with lovers and friends. I still can recall. Some are dead and some are living. In my life, I've loved them all.

SENIORS

7

Man to the last is a forward child;
so eager for the future, come what may,
and to the present so insensible.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

We, the yearbook staff, would like to thank our advisor, Mr. Mulford, for his help and guidance in constructing this yearbook. Creating this book entailed many hours of hard work, but we had fun doing it. We hope this book will help the members of the Class of 1980 to recall some of the memories of their high school years.

We would also like to thank:

Far better it is to dare mighty things,
to win glorious triumphs,
even though checkered by failure,
than to take rank with those poor spirits
who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the gray twilight
that knows not victory nor defeat.

SHE'S ALWAYS A LIBRARIAN

She can kill with a scream
She can wound with a glare
She'll ruin your fate
with her mocking stare
But she'll bring out the best
And the worst you can be
Blame it all on yourself
Cause she's always a librarian to me
She can lead you to Sully
She can take you or leave you
You can tell her the truth
But she'll never believe you
And the most she can do
Is throw bookslips at you
But she's always a librarian to me.

GRADUATION

Graduation is a time of joy and a time of sorrow
A passing of the present and a look toward tomorrow
It hardly seems possible that four years have passed by
That you'll be leaving ole Belmont High
But before you do let us pause a moment to recall
The things we did, both the big and the small
Remember the raffle, it was a real financial success
How we did it all and surprised many, you must confess
Remember the ski trip and how it didn't go too well
How unhappy many were and some angry as —
Remember the Halloween Party, it was really a blast
How in costume everyone came, the class altogether at last
Remember how we all worked for Sister Eileen, all the way
How much fun we had and all the money we made, thanks to B.J.
Remember the Prom Committee and how everyone did their part
How successful it was, right from the very start
Yes, we remember these things and I'm sure many more
All the happenings in the years, by number, four
Soon you will go out and seek your fortune and fame
And tell everyone that its Belmont from whence you came You're the first Class of the 80's, first of a new decade
A decade of new challenges with many decisions to be made You're also the first because you are number one
You'll do the things that must be done and still have fun
Good luck — the best to each and everyone of you
May you all be successful and get life's just due.

Joseph V. Messina
ADVISOR — Class of 80

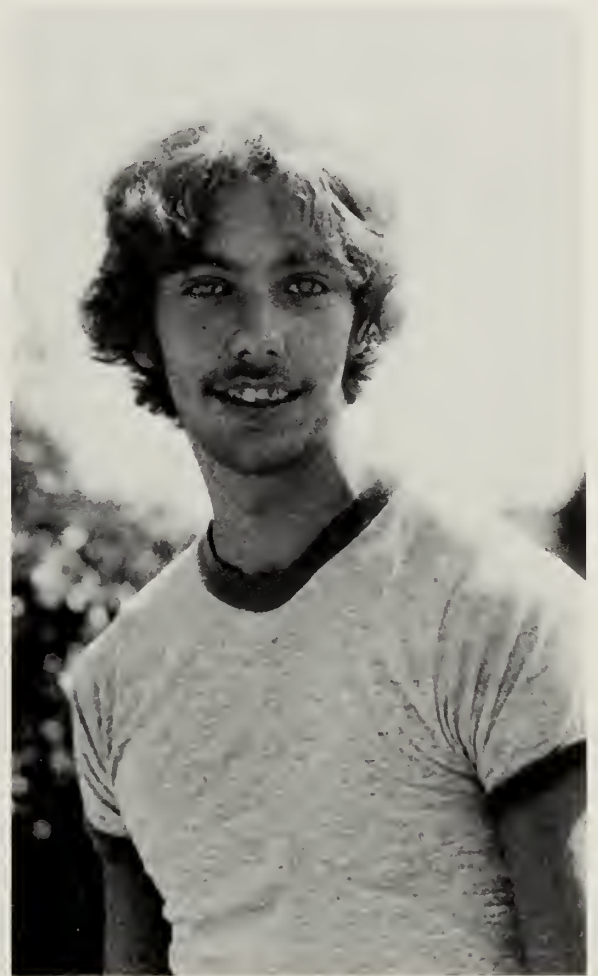

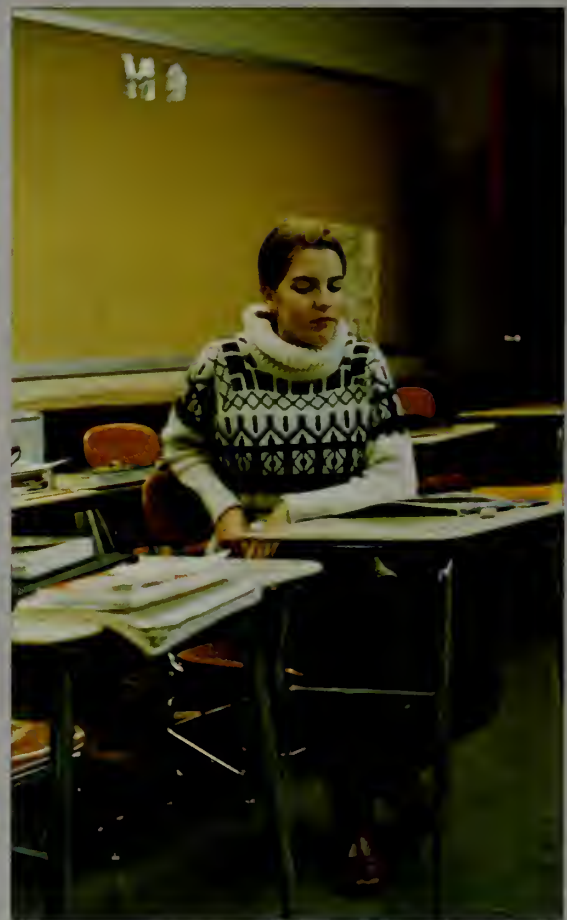

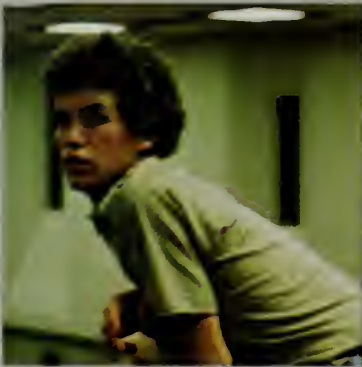

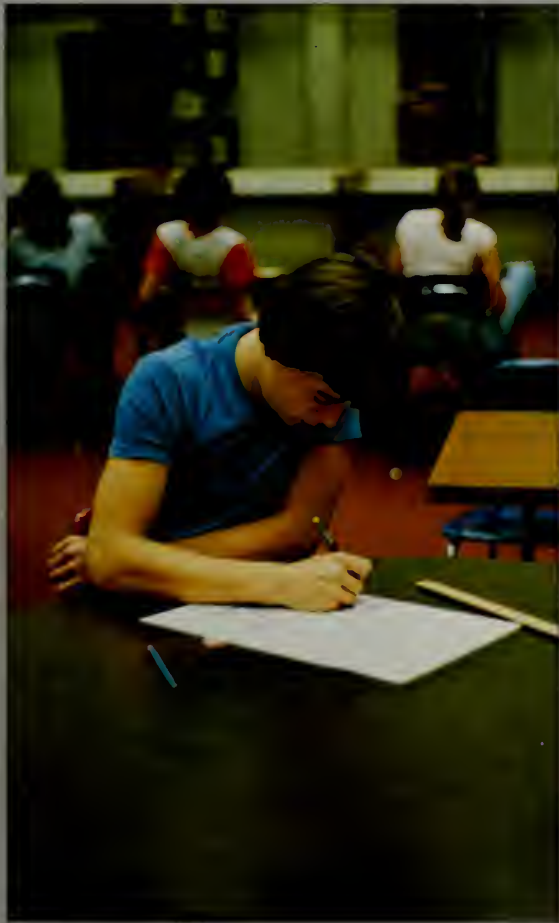

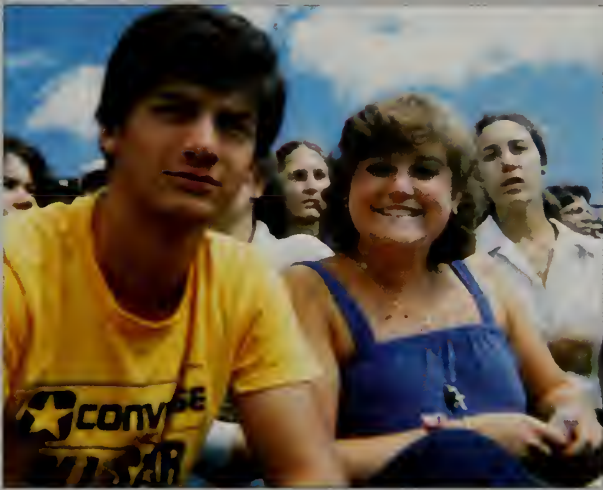

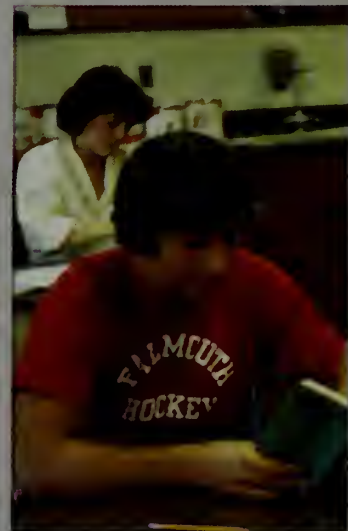

In Loving Memory of
MICHAEL J. DEVLIN
1961-1979

When a child is born, it is almost like a death —
for the child must leave his warm mother's womb.
Then the child grows. He lives with loving parents and friends and he learns about life.
Suddenly his life is taken away, and it's not really death but another beginning of a new life we do not understand.
Michael, may you rest in peace.
We will miss you and remember you, each of us in our own way.
For you will be waiting for us with God Our Father in his heavenly kingdom.

When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep.
